

Seven Continents

The Ultimate Around the World Journey

DISCOVER MORE PACKAGE

New Orleans | December 27 – 30, 2027

Where historic façades line the Mississippi and jazz music fills its lively streets, New Orleans invites discovery and adventure amid its vibrant culture. Immerse yourself in Louisiana's southern charm as you explore the city's distinctive architecture, storied neighborhoods and Cajun heritage.

Enrichment Highlights

French Quarter Architecture Tour

Step into the heart of the French Quarter, strolling past iconic Creole townhouses, lush courtyards and wrought-iron balconies that showcase New Orleans' unique blend of French, Cajun and Spanish influences. Alongside a local guide, enjoy exclusive access to renowned architect Bill Brockschmidt's private residence in the French Quarter.

Tour of the Crescent City

New Orleans earns its nickname from the sweeping curve of the Mississippi River that cradles the city in a wide crescent. Discover this geography on a walking and driving tour, beginning in the French Quarter. Walk down the oak-lined Esplanade Avenue, where colorful, 19th-century houses are on full display. Discover the haunting beauty of the St. Louis Cemetery No. 3 before enjoying coffee and beignets from a local cafe. Then, board the iconic St. Charles Streetcar to Carrollton for views of the Mississippi and Uptown, and wander through the historic Garden District.

Cajun Bayou Experience

Experience the hidden beauty of Louisiana's bayous aboard a traditional flat-bottom pontoon. Drift leisurely past moss-draped cypress trees, alligators basking in the sun and flocks of birds wading in the shallows, as your guide offers insights into the region's Cajun history and life on the bayou.
