Enrichment Highlights

Experience Barcelona

Before your adventure into Africa's heartlands, take a few days to discover the sun-soaked Spanish city of Barcelona. Set between the waters of the Mediterranean and the mountain peaks of Montserrat, you'll find a laid-back introduction to Catalan culture, architecture and cuisine—leaving you relaxed and ready for the journey ahead.

Explore Catalan Cultural Highlights

Begin by tracing the city's artistic evolution alongside expert local guides. Stroll the Passeig de Gracia, with its elegant boutiques, art galleries and mosaics, before visiting Gaudi's famed Sagrada Familia. In the city's Gothic Quarter, narrow streets lead to historic plazas, a medieval Cathedral and the Picasso Museum.

Taste the Flavors of Barcelona

Barcelona's culinary scene is rooted in land and legacy, its restaurants showcasing the very best of Catalan produce. Take a tour of the family-run shops and colorful stalls of the city's longest-running market, La Boqueria, in the heart of La Ramblas. Then, settle in to enjoy a long, leisurely evening of Spanish wine and tapas at a lively neighborhood bar.

Soak up Catalan Art Nouveau

Explore the intricacy of Barcelona's Art Nouveau architecture through the works of Antoni Gaudi and his contemporaries. Visit iconic sites such as Casa Batlló and Casa Milà to understand the vision and craftsmanship behind the city's architectural identity, a considered contrast to the wild landscapes of the journey ahead.

Escape to Montserrat

Journey just beyond the city to Montserrat Natural Park, where scenic mountain trails, caves and hermitages are overlooked by dramatic rock formations. Take in sweeping views of Catalonia, view works by Caravaggio, Picasso and Dalí the museum, and experience the beauty of Santa Maria de Montserrat Abbe.
