Cape Town, South Africa

DECEMBER 9 – 13 | One&Only Cape Town

Framed by the wild Atlantic Ocean and world-class winelands, Cape Town is a breathtaking city shaped by its dramatic coastal setting. Ascend Table Mountain by cable car for sweeping views of the ocean and city below, then discover Cape Town’s colorful streets up close in the Bo-Kaap neighborhood. Gain a deeper understanding of South Africa’s journey to democracy on Robben Island, the former maximum-security prison where Nelson Mandela was held for 18 years.

Soar by helicopter along the rugged Cape Peninsula to absorb the region’s beauty from above. Touch down in Cape Point to see the African penguins of Boulder Beach and enjoy lunch at a local restaurant.

Antarctica

DECEMBER 10 (DAY TRIP)

Cross the Southern Ocean by privately chartered air, watching open water give way to Antarctica’s immense and otherworldly polar desert. Guided by seasoned explorers, you’ll experience a place untouched by time—defined by silence, scale and the stark beauty of the white desert. Here, exploration takes many forms: descending into crystal caves carved beneath the ice sheet, walking across wind-swept ridges and endless white fields, or traversing Queen Maud Land by arctic vehicle, taking in Antarctica’s stark, sculpted beauty from a sheltered vantage.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

DECEMBER 13 – 16 | Belmond Copacabana Palace

Surrounded by forested hills, crescent beaches and granite peaks, Rio de Janeiro pairs dramatic landscapes with a vibrant cultural pulse. Heritage buildings, modern landmarks and the rhythms of samba reveal a city shaped by layered histories and artistic expression.

Grand institutions like the Municipal Theater of Rio de Janeiro and the Metropolitan Cathedral, as well as baroque churches and palace facades, reveal the city’s architectural character in rich detail. On Guanabara Bay, forested coastlines and Sugarloaf Mountain create a sweeping maritime panorama, while Samba City offers an intimate window into the craftsmanship and community behind Carnival’s creative world.

Atacama Desert, Chile

DECEMBER 16 – 19 | Explora Atacama

The Atacama Desert unfolds in stark, sculpted forms—serrated peaks, arid valleys and wind-shaped dunes beneath some of the clearest night skies on Earth. Flamingos gather in salt lagoons, petroglyphs record ancient cultures, and the clear, high-altitude air creates one of the finest stargazing environments on the planet.

Across Los Flamencos National Reserve and the Salt Mountain Range, shifting light reveals salt flats, red clay pans and mineral-streaked hills.

In Moon Valley and Rainbow Valley, color and texture take on surreal intensity, while at El Tatio Geyser Field, steam rises at dawn from one of the world’s highest geothermal fields.

Low-altitude alternative to Atacama Desert

Salta, Argentina

DECEMBER 16 – 19 | Legado Mítico Salta

In northwest Argentina, Salta offers discovery at a relaxed pace, where culture, cuisine and craftsmanship reveal the region’s character. Markets, workshops and enduring traditions create a deep sense of place, offering insight into a landscape shaped as much by people as by geography.

Experience gaucho culture across open countryside and meet artisans preserving ceramic and Andean weaving traditions. At the Glaciarium Patagonian Ice Museum, immersive exhibits describe Patagonia’s terrain, adding a broader dimension to Argentina’s varied topography.

Pisco, Peru

DECEMBER 19 – 21 | La Hacienda Bahía Paracas

Pisco’s golden dunes meet brilliant blue waters of the Pacific’s UNESCO-listed coastline, a striking interplay of land, ocean and extraordinary wildlife.

Offshore, the Ballestas Islands shelter sea lions, seabirds and Humboldt penguins, while nearby Paracas National Reserve protects one of the country’s most important coastal ecosystems.

Austin, Texas

DECEMBER 21 – 22 | Four Seasons Hotel Austin

Celebrate your expedition’s end in the capital of the Lone Star State with a farewell dinner alongside your fellow travelers. Toast to shared memories and reflect on extraordinary landscapes, cultural encounters and meaningful moments that have defined your journey.
