Crowned States of Europe

A 14-Day Small Group Expedition by Private Air

September 9 – 22, 2027

Explore a Europe that few travelers piece together, where former kingdoms, enduring monarchies and independent microstates reveal histories and identities that remain deeply woven into everyday life. Travel by private jet from Scotland's ancient kingdom to Luxembourg, Europe's only Grand Duchy. Experience the alpine principality of Liechtenstein and then the former Kingdom of Bavaria in Munich, where you'll participate in the world-famous Oktoberfest. Conclude in Monaco, arriving by speedboat to one of Europe's smallest sovereign states.

Edinburgh, Scotland

SEPTEMBER 9 – 12 | The Balmoral

From an exclusive celebration of Highland culture at Barnbougle Castle to Edinburgh's royal landmarks, discover the history and traditions that continue to define Scotland today. Experience Edinburgh your way with additional options to hike to the summit of Arthur's Seat for panoramic views over the city, browse the Scottish National Gallery or visit a traditional kiltmaker's workshop.

Luxembourg City, Luxembourg

SEPTEMBER 12 – 14 | Sofitel Luxembourg Le Grand Ducal

Explore Luxembourg City's UNESCO-listed fortifications and Grand Ducal Palace, enduring symbols of a small nation with a singular place in European history. You will also visit the Cathedral of Notre Dame and Place d'Armes before taking in panoramic views from the city's historic ramparts.

Hike the Minett Trail or explore Luxembourg by e-bike, offering two active ways to experience the Grand Duchy beyond its historic capital. Or choose to travel through the scenic Moselle Valley, where sun-drenched vineyards produce some of Europe's finest white wines and Crémant sparkling wines. Visit a local winery to meet the winemakers and enjoy a tasting overlooking the river and vine-covered hillsides.

Vaduz , Liechtenstein

SEPTEMBER 14 – 17 | Park Hotel Sonnenhof

Discover one of Europe's smallest sovereign states, a centuries-old principality nestled between Switzerland and Austria, where the reigning family still calls Vaduz Castle home. Stroll the charming streets of Vaduz old town, visit St. Florin Cathedral and admire the castle overlooking the Rhine Valley.

Experience Liechtenstein's spectacular mountain landscapes on foot. Take a hike in the Malbun and Gänglesee area, with the option to ride a gondola for panoramic alpine views. Explore Liechtenstein's rich cultural heritage with a visit to medieval Gutenberg Castle or the alpine village of Triesenberg, where the traditions of the Walser people continue to thrive. Alternatively, discover the principality's vibrant art scene on a local art tour.

Munich, Germany

SEPTEMBER 17 – 20 | Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten Kempinski Munich (or similar)

Discover Bavaria, where royal history, fairy-tale castles and lively traditions come together in one unforgettable destination. Experience Oktoberfest, the world's largest folk festival. Raise a stein alongside locals, enjoying traditional Bavarian music and cuisine and soaking in the festive atmosphere that has made this annual celebration a global icon.

Journey into the Bavarian Alps to explore two of King Ludwig II's extraordinary residences. Visit the intimate elegance of Linderhof Palace before continuing to Neuschwanstein Castle, the fairy-tale masterpiece that inspired Disney's iconic castle. Or explore Munich's historic center on a guided walking tour to discover the traditions and architecture that have shaped the Bavarian capital for centuries.

Monte Carlo, Monaco

SEPTEMBER 20 – 22 | Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo

Conclude in one of Europe's smallest sovereign states, where the Grimaldi dynasty has ruled for centuries. Arrive in Monaco by speedboat, cruising into Monte Carlo Harbor before exploring the principality. Discover the highlights of Monaco on a guided tour through Monte Carlo and the historic old town.

Choose how to experience the Côte d'Azur with either a tour to Villa Rothschild, a visit to the medieval hilltop village of Èze or an excursion to colorful Menton, where gardens, seaside promenades and Italian influences create a distinctly Riviera atmosphere. Celebrate the conclusion of your expedition with a farewell gala, raising a glass to an unforgettable journey through Europe's kingdoms, principalities and only Grand Duchy. Depart on September 22 for your independent flight home.
