Edges of the Living World

Asia and Oceania by Private Jet

July 1 – 23, 2028

Step into untouched worlds, where orangutans stir beneath emerald canopies, elephants roam open grasslands and Papua New Guinea comes alive in color and ceremony. Trace Kakadu's ancient culture, immerse in Bali's sacred waters and wander Komodo's pink-sand shores, where the last great dragons roam. A rare expedition that brings wild lands and living traditions within reach, seamlessly by private jet.

Seattle, Washington

JULY 1 – 2 | Four Seasons Hotel Seattle

Framed by the waterways of Puget Sound and the snow-capped peaks of the Cascade Mountains, Seattle blends a thriving arts scene with the natural beauty of the Pacific Northwest. Gather for a welcome dinner with fellow travelers as anticipation builds for the journey ahead—into remote landscapes, across tropical seas and in search of wildlife found nowhere else on Earth.

Kanazawa, Japan

JULY 3 – 6 (One day lost crossing the International Date Line) | Hyatt Centric Kanzawa

On Honshu's western coast, Kanazawa—a UNESCO City of Crafts and Folk Art—unfolds in quiet lanes, heritage districts and timeless gardens. Explore Kanazawa Castle, once home to a powerful samurai family, before wandering Kenroku-en, a celebrated landscape garden designed around six classical ideals of beauty.

Step into Higashi Chaya, the city's historic geisha quarter, where wooden teahouses and gold-leaf shops speak to enduring culture. Venture to UNESCO-listed Gokayama, a storybook village of steep thatched rooftops and forested paths, where you'll take part in the centuries-old art of washi papermaking.

Borneo, Malaysia

JULY 6 – 8 | Ormond Sandakan

Discover one of Earth's richest ecosystems for an intimate glimpse into Borneo's natural world and the fragile balance between conservation, culture and the wild. At Sepilok Orangutan Sanctuary, watch rescued orangutans swing through the canopy on their path to rehabilitation. Walk the mangroves of Labuk Bay for close encounters with proboscis monkeys. Then, conclude with a cruise along the Kinabatangan River, pausing to stroll the Abai Nature Boardwalk in search of wild orangutans and rare birds.

Northern Territory, Australia

JULY 8 – 11 | Cicada Lodge

Immerse yourself in the storied landscapes of Australia's Top End, where sandstone cliffs, sacred rivers and Aboriginal traditions shape every moment. Lift off at golden hour as Kakadu National Park unfolds in a shifting panorama of wetlands, escarpments and light. Then, drift along the Katherine River through Nitmiluk Gorge. Or, cruise the East Alligator River with an Aboriginal guide, gaining insight into bush skills and time-honored hunting practices.

UPGRADE ALTERNATIVE | BAMURRU PLAINS OR FINNISS RIVER LODGE

Enhance your journey into the "Top End" with exclusive wildlife encounters at Bamurru Plains, a safari lodge on the edge of Kakadu National Park. Or, overlooking vast wetlands, enjoy an exclusive stay at Finniss River Lodge, a luxury retreat on a working cattle station, reserved exclusively for the group.

Papua New Guinea

JULY 11 | DAY STOP

Remote, raw and rarely visited, Papua New Guinea offers a glimpse into a world few ever encounter. More than 800 languages and centuries-old customs make it one of the most culturally diverse nations on Earth. Your time here unfolds in an unforgettable day in Port Moresby, immersed in artistic and spiritual heritage. Witness a private gathering of 14 tribes as they share Papua New Guinea's living traditions. From the elaborate headdresses of the Huli Wigmen to the mythic clay masks of the Asaro Mudmen, each performance reveals centuries of ritual told through movement, music and ceremony. Conclude with a private viewing of the National Art Gallery and Museum, exploring masks, woven art and military history.

Brisbane, Australia

JULY 11 – 14 | Emporium Hotel South Bank

In Queensland's coastal capital, daily life flows easily between city and nature. Explore the relaxed charm of Brisbane on foot as you cross into the Botanic Gardens to view tropical plants and native birds. Later, join a local wildlife carer for a hands-on encounter with six native species—from sugar gliders to snakes.

Travel into the green hills south of the city to wander Mount Tamborine's elevated walkways through rainforest canopy. After a relaxed lunch and wine tasting, search for wild kangaroos in the open woodlands of Coombabah. Later, enjoy an intimate look at Australia's native wildlife at Lone Pine Koala Sanctuary, followed by a scenic river cruise.

Bali, Indonesia

JULY 14 – 16 | Mandapa, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve

Follow the river into Bali's highlands, where mist hangs in the lush tropical trees and daily ritual infuses life with reverence. Visit water temples, following the flow of a sacred river through forested hills and ancient courtyards, then take part in a traditional purification ritual and priest-led blessing.

Savor the island's flavors with a hands-on cooking class, beginning with a guided visit to a local market before preparing authentic dishes with seasonal ingredients. Or, set out on a private rafting adventure through jungle-clad gorges of the Ayung, Bali's longest river, navigating gentle rapids and hidden waterfalls.

Labuan Bajo, Indonesia

JULY 16 – 19 | Ta'aktana, a Luxury Collection Resort & Spa

A lively harbor town on Flores is your gateway to Indonesia's storied landscapes. Cruise into UNESCO-listed Komodo National Park and walk among ancient dragons on sunbaked trails, then pause at Pink Beach, its rose-hued shore lapped by turquoise waters alive with marine life.

In the hills above Labuan Bajo, receive a warm welcome and exclusive dance performance inside a ceremonial hut at Melo Village, before descending into Batu Cermin Cave, where sunlight refracts across mirrored stone. Visit a working pearl farm to learn how South Sea pearls are cultivated and browse the boutique.

Yala National Park, Sri Lanka

JULY 19 – 22 | Wild Coast Tented Lodge or Uga Chena Huts

From the open plains and coastal wetlands to a sacred pilgrimage site steeped in devotion, Sri Lanka reveals a rare blend of wildlife and culture. Traverse grasslands and forested glades on a Yala National Park game drive—once a royal hunting ground, now a sanctuary for elephants, leopards and sloth bears.

Continue your safari in Udawalawe National Park, a renowned elephant haven, and Bundala Biosphere Reserve, where greater flamingos gather in vibrant flocks. End in Kataragama, exploring a revered temple complex that honors Buddhist, Hindu, Muslim and Vedda traditions.

Singapore

JULY 22 – 23 | Raffles Singapore

Touch down in Singapore, a city of futuristic skylines and lush waterfronts. Over a farewell dinner, reflect on the rare landscapes, living traditions and remarkable moments of your journey.
