Kingdoms and Cultures

An Expedition by Private Jet

May 28 – June 12, 2028

Travel by private jet through a fascinating crossroads of Europe and Central Asia, where royal capitals, Silk Road cities and mountain landscapes reveal centuries of cultural exchange. From Scotland and the Baltics to Uzbekistan, Armenia and Transylvania, encounter living traditions, celebrated artisans and extraordinary historic settings. Along the way, enjoy exclusive evenings aboard the Royal Yacht Britannia, within grand palaces and inside one of Transylvania's most famous castles.

Trakai Island Castle

Edinburgh, Scotland

MAY 28 – 30 | Balmoral, a Rocco Forte hotel

Medieval closes, Georgian avenues and royal landmarks shape one of Europe's most captivating capitals. Walk the Royal Mile between Holyrood Palace and Edinburgh Castle in the Old City and explore world-class collections at the Scottish National Gallery. Spend an afternoon at the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the King's official Scottish residence, or visit a traditional kiltmaker's workshop to discover a craft woven into the nation's identity.

Hike above the city to Arthur's Seat, an ancient volcanic peak offering sweeping views across rooftops, hills and coastline. As evening falls, gather aboard the Royal Yacht Britannia for a gala dinner, marking the start of your journey in a setting long associated with royal tradition.

Vilnius, Lithuania

MAY 30 – JUNE 1 | Grand Hotel Vilnius

Church spires rise above cobbled streets in Vilnius, where centuries of history coexist with a vibrant creative spirit. Explore the Old Town's architectural treasures, from the Gate of Dawn to St. Peter and St. Paul Church, then gain insight into the city's layered past through its historic Jewish quarter.

Discover the independent-minded district of Užupis, visiting a pottery studio and the TARTLE Lithuanian Art Centre, or delve into Lithuania's Soviet-era past at the KGB Museum. Beyond the capital, cruise across Lake Galvė to Trakai Island Castle before gathering at the Palace of the Grand Dukes for an evening of Lithuanian music, dance and cuisine.

Bukhara, Uzbekistan

JUNE 1 – 3 | Wyndham Bukhara

Beneath turquoise domes and soaring minarets, Bukhara reveals the enduring legacy of the Silk Road. Explore the Ark Fortress and the Kalyan Ensemble, then wander the shaded lanes surrounding Lyabi Hauz, where merchants, craftsmen and travelers have gathered for centuries.

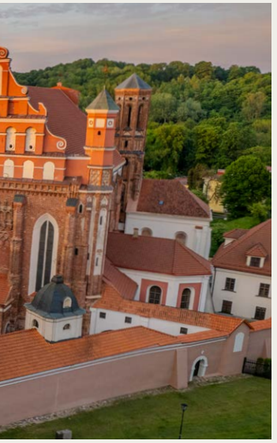

Inside the workshop of master miniature painter Davlat Toshev, witness an art form passed between generations with remarkable precision and care. Browse the city's renowned textile markets and Central Bazaar, then savor a taste of local life at a traditional chaikhana or tea house. Celebrate your stay with a gala dinner at Pavillon Kalon, surrounded by some of Bukhara's most distinguished architecture.

Yerevan, Armenia

JUNE 3 – 6 | The Alexander, a Luxury Collection Hotel

Nearly 3,000 years of Armenian heritage come into view through ancient monasteries, sacred sites and dramatic mountain landscapes.

In Yerevan, explore the broad terraces of the Cascade, then step into the Cafesjian Center for the Arts. Journey outside of the capital to discover the ruins of Zvartnots Cathedral and Etchmiadzin Cathedral.

In the surrounding countryside, visit the UNESCO-listed Geghard Monastery and the Temple of Garni, dramatically positioned above a rugged gorge. Encounter Armenian traditions through local artisans, browse the Vernissage market and explore priceless manuscripts preserved at Matenadaran.

Transylvania, Romania

JUNE 6 – 8 | Swissôtel Poiana Brasov (or similar)

The forests and peaks of the Carpathians frame a landscape of fortified churches, medieval villages and enduring rural traditions. In Viscri and Rupea, meet the people preserving the traditional architecture and centuries-old ways of life.

Explore elegant royal residences including Peleș Castle in Sinaia, or hike between Peștera and Măgura, along scenic village paths bordered by rolling hills. Meet local artisans for a traditional Romanian egg-decorating workshop or experience rural life at a working farm. A private reception and dinner inside storied Bran Castle complete your Transylvanian experience.

Kraków, Poland

JUNE 8 – 11 | Hotel Saski Krakow, Curio Collection by Hilton

One of Europe's great historic capitals, Kraków pairs architectural grandeur with a deeply layered cultural story. Stroll the UNESCO-listed Old Town, visit St. Mary's Basilica and explore Wawel Hill, long considered the symbolic heart of Poland's royal and spiritual life.

In Kazimierz, discover the heritage of Kraków's Jewish community before descending into the remarkable underground chambers of Wieliczka Salt Mine. A day at the Auschwitz-Birkenau Memorial and Museum offers an important perspective on one of history's darkest chapters. Back in the city, gather for a final evening celebrating Polish culture and cuisine.

London, England

JUNE 11 – 12 | Four Seasons Hotel London at Park Lane

Arrive in London for a farewell evening with fellow travelers, reflecting on the discoveries, conversations and shared experiences that shaped your journey across Europe and Central Asia. Following a restful night, return home on your independent flight.
